I understand that Mr. Smith may have made this connotation only as a quote from M. Clarke's email to him, and may not actually share Mr Clarke's views.

My lawyer insists that we need to be assured of the true intention of the persons involved in this assault before legal action commences. Therefore, I wish to ask you to investigate this matter further, and disclose the email (from Mr. Clarke to Mr. Smith) containing this reference to myself purely to avoid any confusion with regards to P. Smith and clarify the views of P. Smith and his reference to me as a rogue coach.

I enclose for your reference the extracts from the emails I sent and received

Thank you very much for the cooperation

Yours in Sport
